Seems to be at the Japs' Mercy

THE RUSSIAN SEA FORCE IS PATCHED UP

Czar's Men are Said to be in Full Retreat

BEFORE THE ADVANCING JAPS.

Russia's Efficient Naval Force Is Said
to Consist of Five Fighting Ships.

London, June 25.—Admiral Togo, by a brilliant attack on the Russian fleet at Port Arthur, has, in the opinion of experts, more than regained for Japan
that prestige lost by the lack of watchfulness which permitted the Russian Vladivostok squadron to creep in and sink two transports and disable a third. While the details of the fighting at Port Arthur are not yet at hand,
there is little question that Admiral Witger, commander of the Russian vessels, was driven to desperation and attempted a hazardous escape from Japanese surveillance, and failed.

According to Togo's official dispatch received in Tokio this morning, the engagement occurred on Thursday and the Russians lost a battleship of the Peresviet type sunk and had a battleship and a first-class cruiser badly damaged.

The Japanese fleet, he says, sustained but little damage. There is little doubt in the minds of many that Wit-ger's attempt was in many points similar to that of Admiral Cervera's when he tried to escape the watchful eye of the Americans off Santiago during the Spanish war. Witger, like Cervera, was locked up in a harbor with a strong force of the enemy's vessels outside, anxious to draw him out to battle in the open sea.

Reports received from Port Arthur describe the Russian sea force there as a patched-up affair. The czar's efficient force is said to be composed merely of two battleships and three cruisers. With this in mind, it would seem that Togo's damage to the fleet reported last night has been disastrous. His report says that two battleships were practically put out of commission, as well as a cruiser. Thus taking the report of the state of the vessels into consideration and accepting it as correct, the Russian force at Port Arthur now consists of but two cruisers in full fighting condition. In addition to this, Japan has a large force of soldiers on land to the rear of Port Arthur ready for the work to begin the attack. It would seem as though Togo and the land force between them at last have Port Arthur at their mercy.

Sensational reports, which bear the earmarks of authenticity, are at hand
today and indicate that a big land battle between the troops of the czar, under Kuropatkin, and those of the mikado, under Kuroki and Oku, is near at hand. It may be that this battle will be the final great struggle of the war,
owing to the enormous forces which will be engaged. Kuroki and Oku are said to have effected a juncture at Kai Chow. This being true, the fight will occur within a very short time. The main fight is expected near Mukden.

RUSSIANS RETREATED

Tokio, June 25.—(Bulletin.)—A dispatch received this evening says the Port Arthur naval fight was the result of a dash for the south made by sixteen Russian warships Thursday night.
They were met by Admiral Togo with his entire squadron and compelled to retreat to Port Arthur harbor.

REPORT CONFIRMED.

Washington, June 25.—Minister Griscom at Tokio in a cablegram to the state department today officially confirms the report of the sinking of a Russian battleship and the disabling of other vessels at Port Arthur by the Japanese blockading squadron on June 23. He says that the Russians made an attempt in force to leave the harbor and were immediately engaged by Togo's squadron. The dispatch states:
"One Russian battleship was sunk and several others badly damaged. No damage to Japanese fleet."

RUSSIANS RETREAT.

Shan Hai Kwan, June 25.—The Russians are in full retreat from the Liao Tung peninsula and are making arrangements for the hasty withdrawal of the troops at Newchwang, according to reports reaching here. The Japanese army is steadily approaching Kai Ping and are meeting with little resistance.

According to the reports reaching here Kuropatkin has instructed Stakelberg to join him at Hai Cheng without loss of time, checking the Japanese advance with his cavalry and field artillery as much as possible so as to give time for the removal of the stores and munitions now at Kai Chou and Newchwang.

Typesetting machines were installed in the Government Printing Office at Washington the other day for the first time.

WARM

Wave Broken in This Region by Sunday Says
the Forecaster.

Washington, June 25.—The weather bureau issued the following bulletin
today: The present warm wave will be broken in the lower Ohio Valley and western lake region tonight in the upper Ohio Valley and eastern lake region Sunday, and in the middle Atlantic states and western New England states by Sunday night and will be followed by two or three days of moderate temperature."

PRINCESS

Who Has Had Career of Adventure Again
Elopes.

New York, June 25.—A cablegram
from Paris to the Herald announces that Clara Ward, who married Prince De Chimay and afterward eloped with James Rigo, the gypsy violinist, has now run away with a canvasser in the service of a tourist agency in that city. The life of Clara Ward, afterward Princess Chimay has been filled with adventure. Born at Detroit during the panic of 1873, she inherited many millions on the death of her father, Captain Eber Ward, the wealthiest man in Michigan. She has squandered a fortune of three millions.

BOND ISSUES

By Ohio Cities Radically Changed by Amendment at Last Hours of the Legislature.

Columbus, O., June 25.—Discovery
has been made that the legislature in its last hour amended the municipal code in such a manner as to exempt from the Longworth bond act limitation all bonds issued during the past two years. Cities are now authorized to issue bonds equal to one per cent of the tax duplicate annually and up to a total of four per cent or eight per cent
by vote of people, counting from the time of the enactment of the code amendment April 22, 1904. The effect of the amendment is to lift the restrictions of the Longworth act.

Ordered to Get Out.

Coshocton, June 25.—Mayor Rinner
has ordered all illegal houses to shut up by July 1. He says they are responsible for half the police court cases of the city.

2,700 in France.

FIFTH WELL

IS NOW BEING DRILLED NEAR UNION STATION.

First Four Wells Are Good Producers
—To Pipe the Gas to Columbus.

The fifth gas well is now being sunk
in the vicinity of Union Station, this well being on the farm of Carl I. Price.
The well is down 600 feet and preparations are being made for another well
to be located on the farm of Squire T.
P. Jones. The first four wells are good gas producers and work of piping it to Columbus will be commenced at once. The pipe has arrived and is on the ground. The first four wells are the Stone and Buckland wells, near the Licking church, and the two wells on the farms of D. A. Taylor and Wilbur
B. Lees. J. W. Smith, of Muncie,
Indiana, is putting down the wells.

Preparing to Place All Evidence in Their Hands Before the Federal Grand Jury.

New York, June 25.—The number of victims of the Slocum steamship disaster recovered is today 913. There are still at the morgue 32 unidentified bodies. The hundred German speaking policemen who have been canvassing the stricken parish of St.
Mark's, will probably finish their task today. The lists already available indicate that the dead will number 1100.
United States authorities are at work preparing to place all the evidence in their hands, bearing on the General Slocum disaster before the federal grand jury next week. Indictments, it is expected, will speedily follow.

organized his forces for the bitterest political campaign in the history of Wisconsin, and one that is likely to furnish the most sensational feature of the Presidential contest throughout the Union. The result may be to give the state to the Democrats.

FELL OUT OF FERRY BOAT AND 160 PEOPLE WERE DROWNED.

St. Petersburg, June 25.—The bottom of a ferry boat which was crossing the Khopper river, fell out this morning and 160 pilgrims aboard lost their lives. Many of these aboard were lashed to poles against a mill wheel. Sixty bodies were recovered.

FIRE

Is Today Raging in Geneva
With a High Wind Blowing.

Geneva, Switzerland, July 25.—(Bulletin)—Geneva is today afflicted with one of the most disastrous fires in its history. The blaze is raging in the old quarters of the city. The historic National Catholic church, containing priceless pictures and books, has been destroyed. A high wind is blowing and the flames are blowing across the narrow streets. The cathedral is in danger.

TONIO

Dropped Ticket in Mailbox Thinking it Was
Thing to Do.

New York, June 25.—Driven temporarily insane by the loss of his ticket to Germany, which he had dropped in a letter box believing that was the thing to do, B. Tonio, an emigrant, who had come to Hoboken from Chicago, to sail, is probably dying.

In a paroxysm of grief he threw himself off the dock, an dwas rescued
only after great difficulty.

A postoffice official opened the box
and found the ticket. If Tonio lives, he will be given passage next Saturday.

FEET BURNED

Utica Woman Suffers From Bad Accident—Spilled Boiling Water
Upon Herself.

Utica, O., June 25.—Mrs. George Jacobs, who resides in the Penn property, had both of her feet seriously burned Thursday. She had hurt a toe so that she could not wear her shoe, and was wearing a pair of loose slippers while she was washing.
She was carrying a bucket of scalding
water with lye in it, when she dropped the bucket and spilled the water over her feet and in her slippers. Dr.
Smith, who attended her, says that both feet are badly cooked, the left
one the worst.

Nash Cast Vote.

Columbus, O., June 25.—Two Bran-nock local option elections went "dry"
here yesterday. Ex-Governor Nash went to the polls in his district and cast his ballot in the election. Governor Herrick lives in the same district, but he votes in Cleveland.

Name of Port Arthur.

Port Arthur was named after Lieutenant-Commander Arthur, of the British navy, who anchored his ship in the bay one day about 50 years ago. His was the first foreign ship that had visited the bay.

DISGUST

AMONG REPUBLICANS RETURNED FROM CHICAGO CONVENTION.

Turning Down of Foraker Has Increased the Bitter War Between the Ohio Factions.

Columbus, O., June 25.—The assemblage of postmasters and undertakers in a funeral gathering at Chicago called by courtesy the Republican National Convention, has passed into history and those who took part in it have returned to their ordinary vocations somewhat out of pocket but increased in wisdom. They have learned that the Republican party today is not what it was four years or even four months ago. The well-known Republicans who attended the convention from Columbus, on their return do not attempt to disguise their disgust with the temper that dominated the gatherings

It was on every lip that if M. A. Hanna had lived he would have been nominated for president instead of Roosevelt. Indeed if Mr. Hanna had not died so recently some other man than he or Roosevelt would have been nominated. The leaders admit that the party machine has not had time to recover from the shock of Hanna's death, and that was why the convention was entirely without leadership and blindly pursued a course not favored by the majority.

One of the most prominent Republican leaders in Ohio in a burst of confidence, employed a striking simile to describe the delegates at Chicago.

"Did you ever see a flock of ducks
whose leader had been lost or gone crazy?" inquired this individual. "They will flounder around in the water and sometimes when in this panic you can row out to them in a boat and kill them with an oar. Yet those ducks could fly just as well as if their leaders were with them, if they only knew it.
That is the way it was with the delegates at Chicago. They were without a leader and didn't know they could fly."

The turning down that Senator Foraker received in the Windy City has intensified the factional fight waged here between his followers and the cohorts of Dick and Herrick. Foraker's friends say that he has never in his life resented anything in politics as he resents the treatment he received at the hands of the old Hanna machine operated by the new engineers at Chicago. Foraker understands perfectly well that it is the intention of Dick and Herrick to defeat him for re-election and that Herrick is already laying the wires to succeed him. The treatment of Foraker at Chicago was an open declaration of this fact and since the return of the delegates from the convention it is admitted on both sides that the war is on. No truce will be patched up for the coming campaign.
The Republican state organization,
wholly under the control of General
Dick, will give Foraker the worst of it
at every opportunity and the senior senator will retaliate whenever he gets the chance. This condition of affairs will not be disastrous to Democratic interests in Ohio and if no mistake is made at St. Louis it may have a strong influence upon circumstances calculated to make the state Democratic next November.

FAIRBANKS

Starts to His Home This Afternoon on Special Train, Stopping at Several Towns.

Chicago, June 25.—Senator Charles Warren Fairbanks, vice presidential nominee, will start today at 1 o'clock to his home in Indianapolis. In the party will be Mrs. Fairbanks, Frederick Fairbanks, son of the senator, and a number of prominent Indiana representatives. They will have a special car on a Big Four train. Members of the Indiana delegation to the national convention have arranged for a series of celebrations to be held at various towns between here and Indianapolis.
The first stop will be at Fowler, Ind.

NEW OCEAN GREYHOUND BALTIC, THE LARGEST SHIP AFLOAT

The new White Star steamship Baltic is the largest ship afloat. She is 725 feet 9 inches long, or about 20 feet longer than the Oceanic, and is 75 feet wide. Her displacement is 24,000 tons, and the engines which drive her at the rate of 17 knots an hour are of 13,000 horsepower. The main saloon comfortably seats 370, and when sailing with a full complement of passengers and crew she will carry over 3,000 persons. The speed of the ship and depth of water are registered by electricity every ten seconds. She is also equipped with the "ship under," which warns the officer on the bridge of the approach of any vessel as soon as it comes within five miles. Besides this, the indicating needle points directly at the vessel, thus obviating any chance of accident.

south bound, this morning jumped the track at Delaware. Engineer Fred Sheppard of Cleveland was killed outright and Fireman Pat Gore of Cleveland, was seriously but not fatally hurt. The only passenger seriously hurt is Allen McDonald of Louisville, Ky. The engine and the cars are all off track and the cars are scattered through the yards.

STREET CARS COLLIDE.

Chicago, June 25.—Eleven persons were hurt, none fatally, by a collision
early this morning of two south side surface cars. An East Thirtyfirst car and a Wallace street car attempted to make a crossing in advance, a collision resulting. Both cars were badly shattered and the occupants were tossed on each side of the street. Patrol wagons carried the injured to the nearest hospital. Nearly everybody suffered some injury. John Freeman, a laborer, and Mrs. Theresa Walsh, a clerk, were hurt internally and are in the most serious condition.

MOTHER'S FRIEND

Good Uncle Ben

By C. B. LEWIS

Copyright, 1904, by C. B. Lewis

Sarah Jane Williams, daughter of Farmer John Williams, was characterized by her parents as a pigheaded girl. They said she had been pigheaded even in her babyhood days and had grown worse as she grew older. When asked by her in reply to furnish a bill of particulars, about all they could bring forward was the fact that at seventeen she had refused to marry a lightning rod man twice her age, that at eighteen she had scorned a patent hayfork agent who had fallen in love with her at first sight, at nineteen she had refused to receive the attentions of an old widower who owned the only windmill for ten miles around and at twenty she was "taken up" with Harry Seymour, son of a nearby farmer in moderate circumstances.

The girl did not deny that she meant to marry Harry. But the old folks had other plans in view. They wanted her to look higher, even as high as the commission man who came through the country every fall buying up thousands of bushels of apples. They first began objecting to Harry in a general way, but in the course of a few months he had been as good as forbidden the house.

The lovers' difficulties simply increased their love. They had about determined on an elopement when Uncle Ben Churchill arrived on a visit and with him a distant relative. Uncle Ben was Mrs. Williams' brother, and the distant relative was a second cousin to both and a young man of twenty-two. The first thing that Uncle Ben did was to discover that Sarah wanted to marry and that her parents were opposed to the match. The first thing that the second cousin did was to fall in love with Sarah Jane. That made three complications on hand at once, and Uncle Ben was in his element. If there was one thing he liked better than another it was complications. When he

"I'll help you plan an elopement," had seen that the second cousin was smitten he took his part against the field.

"Look a-bere, Sarah," he began one day as he got the girl to sit down beside him in the orchard, "you believe I know folks better'n you do, don't you?"

"Yes, of course."

"I orter, Sarah—I orter. I've been to New York and Boston and all around, and I can spot a pickpocket as far as I can see him. That feller Harry ain't no feller for you to marry. I didn't have to look at him twice to see that he'll never make a buster."

"I don't see why," protested Sarah.

"Natur' didn't make him that way. You'd never have a second dress to your back if you married him. Better give him right up now; and lemme p'int you out a feller who'll make a crackin' good husband."

"Who is it?"

"Your Cousin Walter. He's fell in love with you and can't sleep o' nights. He's a feller who's goin' to rip up the ground all around some day."

"But I know I never could love him."

"One can do a heap of things, my girl, if she sets out to. You jest go around thinkin' about Walter from mornin' till night, and you'll be lovin' him inside of a week."

"I don't believe father and mother would like it."

"Say, now, that's the fun of the hull thing," laughed Uncle Ben as he rubbed his hands together. "I've kinder sounded your dad and mam, and they ain't stuck on Walter. They can't cotton to a feller who parts his hair in the middle and has a gold filled tooth. They might be opposed to a marriage, but that marriage could come off jest the same."

"How?" asked Sarah, with considerable interest.

"Lean your head down till I whisper one word in your ear—elopement. If you and Walter make up to each other, I'll help you plan an elopement and put $100 in your hand for a bridal dower. I'd jest like to show your dad and mam that there's other folks who know a thing or two."

An idea was trying to work itself out in Sarah's mind, and she asked for half a day to think things over. At the end of that time she accepted Uncle Ben's proposition.

"Good girl!" he exclaimed as he kissed her and smiled like a June morning. "You just go right ahead lovin' Walter,

and when the time comes I'll be on hand."

Sarah and Walter went ahead. As he was no great favorite of her parents she was not put to any great bother. The most she had to do was to hear him sigh and recite poetry and apostrophize the rising and setting sun. Backed and urged on by Uncle Ben, he finally proposed and was inferentially accepted. This was no sooner over with than there was a further confab in the orchard.

"Now, then, for the elopement!" chuckled Uncle Ben. "And here's the $100. I'll give Walter another hundred before the thing comes off."

"Dear old Uncle Ben, but what a good man you are!" Sarah said gratefully.

"Yes, all wool and a yard wide," he replied as he pinched her cheek.

Three nights later at 11 o'clock at night Sarah Jane Williams tiptoed softly downstairs and left the house. There were a horse and buggy waiting in the road which had been ordered by Uncle Ben. A young man followed close on her heels and took the lines and drove away. As the outfit disappeared in the darkness the good man waved his hat and chuckled. Then he entered the house to sit down and chuckle some more, when some one came rattling downstairs. It was Walter, the distant relative. He had been locked in his room for the last half hour.

"By gum, but let us figger on this!" exclaimed Uncle Ben as his smile vanished.

It needed no Sherlock Holmes to unravel the mystery. Sarah had locked Walter in, and Walter was out of it. The man who had driven off with her to get married before the waiting minister in the nearest village must be Harry Seymour. They would see Niagara falls and other wonders of the world on that $100, and then come back for forgiveness.

"Walter, my boy," said good Uncle Ben when through with his "figgering," "you part your hair in the middle and have got a gold filled tooth, and you are a fool!"

"Uncle Ben," replied the chagrined and dejected distant relative, "you conspire and plan and chuckle and are an idiot."

A Smuggling Scheme.

Many are the devices employed by smugglers both by land and sea. A very smart trick is related of a method by which brandy was conveyed through Paris. Regularly, day after day, a tandem bicycle made its way through one of the gates into the city and attracted no attention. The same pair of cyclists rode it always and appeared to be but workmen hastening to their work from their homes in the suburbs. One morning, just after the machine was through the gates, it went to earth, unseating both the riders. The man who had occupied the front seat jumped to his feet, grabbed the machine, vaulted into the saddle and rode for his life, never giving a glance at his stunned companion. Astonished, the customs officers, who had witnessed the mishap, rushed to the aid of the fallen man, who showed no signs of life. They were still more surprised when they reached him, for he wasn't a man at all, but just a dummy with movable legs and arms, a false head and face and a hollow body of rubber. He had punctured in the fall and ten gallons of the best brandy was making its exit as quickly as it could.

Elusive Syllables.

A crowning specimen of ludicrous helplessness in the face of elusive syllables is that of the unfortunate speaker who, at a pathetic point of his address, when his hero was about to undergo a heartrending parting from home and friends, uttered in his most melting voice:

"Biddy diddy!"

He stopped confused, flushed, set his mouth and tried again, with a difficult resumption of the interrupted pathos:

"Diddy, diddy!"

Something was still wrong. He grew scarlet, perspired and gasped forth a third attempt, not more intelligible. His hearers could none of them interpret it. It might be high German or it might be a "Mother Goose" refrain:

"Diddy, biddy, biddy doo!"

The situation was desperate, but the persistent orator rallied, paused until he had fully recovered his self control, and trying once more, with slow utterance and distinctive enunciation, conquered at length the simple phrase which had overthrown him. He said:

"Did he bid adieu?"

Worth Bringing to Light.

One can easily imagine that the judge smiled, the lawyers laughed and the spectators burst into applause when a courtroom bore was subdued in the following effectual way, told in the Christian Endeavor World:

George B. Smith and I. S. Sloan, two of the greatest lawyers of their day, were once trying a case as opponents. Mr. Sloan had a habit of punctuating his address to the court with the expression, "Your honor, I have an idea." The case had been dragging its weary length through the hours of a warm summer day, when Mr. Sloan, who was making what appeared to be an interminable argument, said:

"Your honor, I have an idea!"

Mr. Smith sprang to his feet, assumed a dignified position, and with all the solemnity imaginable said:

"May it please the court, I move that a writ of habeas corpus be issued by this court immediately to take the learned gentleman's idea out of solitary confinement."

Juvenile Lore.

A teacher was explaining to a little girl how the trees developed their foliage in the springtime.

"Oh, yes," said the little miss, "I understand; they keep their summer clothes in their trunks."—Watchword.

NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE

VACATION TIME. Vacation time should bring rest, recreation and comfort; and comfort of the solid and pleasing variety means no high collar, no stiff hat and no itching scalp. It is for this last discomfort that Newbro's Herpicide becomes a summer necessity, as it stops itching of the scalp and Prickly Heat almost instantly. Take Herpicide with you on your vacation.

SCALP WARNING. Itching of the scalp is not so much a punishment for past neglect as it is a warning for the future. It shows, almost conclusively, that the vine-like, microbic growth that causes dandruff, itching scalp and falling hair has entered the Sebaceous glands and unless this growth is stopped and kept out of the scalp, baldness will follow.

IT IS CONTAGIOUS. It was Prof. Unna (ask your doctor about him) who first pointed out that the true cause of hair loss is a germ or microbe that lodges in the scalp, where it causes dandruff. Being of microbic origin, the disease is necessarily contagious, but Dr. Sabouraud has recently called attention to the highly contagious nature of dandruff, and the necessity of constant watchfulness to avoid it. Kill the dandruff germ with Herpicide.

UNSTERILIZED PUBLIC HAIR-BRUSHES, says Dr. A. Cartaz, are to blame for most of the baldness that is prevalent today. He further states that, "baldness begins in the young." By this he means that the germ that causes the disease is planted in the scalp of young men and that sometimes years elapse before the destruction is complete.

WILL NOT GROW HAIR. Newbro's Herpicide is a "Hair-Saver"; it will not grow hair—nature does this—but by destroying the enemies of hair health, it enables the hair to grow as nature intended—except in chronic baldness. Save your hair with Herpicide. Wonderful results follow its use.

HOT WEATHER TROUBLES. During hot weather the minute sudatory glands of the scalp are called upon to perform an extra amount of labor. The perspiration that exudes in increased quantities must be handled promptly as it carries out poisonous and refuse matter that would otherwise clog up the pores of the scalp. Incomplete elimination of refuse matter produces a hot and feverish condition of the scalp, familiarly known as Prickly Heat, for which Herpicide gives immediate relief. Ladies will find Herpicide indispensable. It contains no grease, will not stain or dye. It is an exquisite hair dressing that COOLS, COMFORTS AND DELIGHTS.

BEST USED IN THIRTY YEARS. "After using one bottle of your valuable remedy, Newbro's Herpicide, it has given more relief than any I have used after thirty years of falling hair and itching scalp. (Signed) Sandusky, O. DEWITT C. SHROUDS.

A GOOD JUDGE. "For dandruff and falling hair I would earnestly advise the use of Newbro's Herpicide. I know by experience in my business as a barber, that it is the finest hair tonic on the market. (Signed) Findlay, O. "OZA J. SIMON."

RUSH FOR NEW LANDS
ROSEBUD AND DEVIL'S LAKE RESERVATIONS SOON TO BE OPENED.
Hundreds of Thousands of Acres in North and South Dakota For Settlers—How the Farm Lands Are Allotted—Bonesteel and Its Boom.
United States government lands suitable for farming and stock raising purposes are becoming scarce. For this reason when a new section of public land of this character is opened for settlement there is sure to be a spirited demand for allotments. Not long ago President Roosevelt signed a proclamation providing for the opening of 88,000 acres of the ceded lands of the Devil's Lake Indian reservation, in North Dakota. The land is to be disposed of by registration and drawing. The registration will be made at Grand Forks, N. D., beginning Aug. 8, and the drawing will be held at Devil's Lake, beginning Aug. 24.
In May the president issued a proclamation regarding the opening for settlement of the Rosebud Indian reservation, in South Dakota. Registration and drawings for the settlement of this tract will take place during July, and as the Rosebud reservation contains 382,000 acres of rich farm land a rush for allotments is anticipated. The village of Bonesteel, S. D., near these lands, is just now witnessing lively scenes. Bonesteel is a typical frontier town. A few weeks ago it had a population of about 700 persons. But settlers are flocking there now by hundreds, so as to be on hand when the new lands are offered to the seekers after farms. Those who have witnessed the opening of other sections of public lands predict a registration of 50,000 by the time the Rosebud reservation is thrown open.

As Bonesteel is on the edge of the tract to be settled and offices for registration are located there it is expected that a large proportion of the intending settlers, after registering, will remain in the place until the drawing occurs. Bonesteel is described as "a wide open town, where cowboys ride into the saloons and drink at the bars on horseback." The one railroad that runs to the frontier village is preparing to do a heavy business during the fifteen days the registration office will be open.

What makes the rush to this particular section of reservation land so great? It is the fact that this land is mostly rich and well adapted for agricultural purposes. Much of the public land of the United States is barren or fit only for grazing. The land of the Rosebud reservation is a porous black loam, from two to six feet deep, with a clay and gravel subsoil. Land adjacent to this reservation is selling at from $25 to $40 per acre, and is practically all under cultivation. A man who takes a quarter section of the Rosebud land this summer is likely in a few years to have a farm worth from $2,000 to $5,000. A quarter section is 160 acres. The homestead laws secure to qualified persons the right to settle upon and acquire title to portions of the public land in tracts not exceeding one quarter section each.

The homestead entry man must be the head of a family or a person who has arrived at the age of twenty-one years, a citizen of the United States, or one who has filed his declaration of intention to become such. The settler obtains his land from the government at $1 an acre and only has to pay $1 an acre in cash, the rest being in installments of 75 cents an acre, one payment being in two years, another in three, another in four and the last within six months after five years. In his application the settler must make affidavit that his purpose is that of actual settlement and is not for the benefit of any other person or corporation.
Much of the public land of the United States which remains undisposed of to settlers is unfit for agricultural purposes unless irrigated or else is inaccessible. As soon as a section of rich land is opened its settlement is usually rapid. When the Indian lands of Oklahoma were thrown open, there was a great rush to get on the ground first and establish ownership on the best sites. The system of registration and drawing which has since been adopted by the government avoids much of the confusion and hardship formerly incident to the settlement of new lands. Applications may be made until a specified date, and then there is a drawing, all who have registered having an equal chance.

COMMITTEE CHOSEN SATURDAY BY DEMOCRATS.

Messrs. Vermillion and Renz Elected Chairman and Secretary of Central Committee.

A meeting of the new Democratic County Central committee was held on Saturday morning in the convention room of the Court House, for the purpose of effecting an organization, selecting an Executive committee, and transacting any further business that might come before the committee. The committee, which was largely attended, was called to order by Mr. E. O. Vermillion, chairman.
Upon motion of Mr. Daniel F. Gormley, Mr. E. O. Vermillion, who has so faithfully and so efficiently filled the position of chairman of the Central committee during the past year, was re-elected to the position.
Mr. Vermillion, in a few remarks appropriate to the occasion, thanked the members of the committee for the honor that had been conferred upon him, and took advantage of the occasion to make a few well timed suggestions calculated for the good of Democracy.
Upon motion of Mr. F. B. Dudgeon, Mr. Joseph Renz, the efficient secretary of the committee, was then re-elected for the ensuing year.
Upon motion of Mr. Homer H. Sparks, the chairman appointed a committee of five, consisting of Messrs. H. M. Whitehead, D. F. Gormley, Edwin Haughay, John McKenna, and F. S. Baker to confer with the candidates and to select an executive committee, consisting of five members from the city and six from the county with instructions to report to the meeting as soon as possible.
The committee retired and after consultation reported the following named persons as having been selected to constitute the Executive committee:

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.
City—Phil B. Smythe, F. A. Bolton, E. L. Weisgerber, E. W. Crayton and Joseph R. Moser.
County—F. P. Householder, Washington township; J. L. Clifton, Elmdale township; James Davis, Licking township; Roderic Jones, Granville township; L. M. Beaver, Jersey township; C. L. V. Holtz, Madison township. The report was unanimously adopted.
Upon motion, it was ordered that the Executive committee advise with the Central committeemen from each township and in the city as to the manner of holding primary elections for township and city offices.
The Executive committee will meet on Saturday, July 2, for the purpose of effecting an organization.

STREET CAR
Should Stop on West Side of Hudson Street at North Street Intersection.
The Advocate is requested to suggest that the superintendent of the city street railway company publish an order requiring motormen to stop the Fourth street car on the west instead of the east side of Hudson avenue. At present the car descends the North street hill oftentimes at a terrific rate and frequently the gong is not sounded as the Hudson avenue crossing is approached. Friday evening a crowded auto, escaped a collision with the car only by a few inches, both the auto and the car being run at high speed at that time.
If an order is given to stop the car on the west side of the street crossing, the liability to accident will be much less. At any rate, an order should be given requiring the motormen to sound the gong as the crossing is approached.
Most men are egotists—from the other man's point of view.—St. Paul Globe.

WHERE IS THE FULL DINNER PAID?

What has become of the good old Republican slogan, "A full dinner paid"? Not once did it escape the lips of a convention orator at Chicago. Are its clarion tones silenced forever? Has the pail which has served so well in the past been mislaid or lost or, like the pitcher which goes too often to the well, has it been smashed? If it is still in possession of the party, why not again uplift it as the party emblem? Is it empty? A Republican campaign without a full dinner pail will be but a Barmecide feast.

The electric weld is becoming a more and more important factor in many industries. During recent years the extension of its application has been steady, and each year has witnessed its entrance into new fields. Sometimes, indeed, new manufactures, or new ways of obtaining results, have been based upon its use.

The German Government railroad exhibit at the St. Louis Fair shows the block system and switch signals flow in use in Germany. More than 1,500 feet of track, in the construction of which both iron and wooden ties were used, have been laid. There are a station house, two switch towers and one intermediate block signal post.

How far radium is responsible for the best of the earth is one of the philosophical questions now interesting scientists. Professor Rutherford, before a recent meeting of the Royal Institution of London, stated that he believed the amount of radium present and uniformly distributed throughout the earth would be sufficient to account for all the heat lost from the body.

CAPACITY
OF REMODELED MILL IS TO BE 150 BARRELS A DAY.
Immerse Storage Capacity of the Mill
—Firm Will Put Out New Break-fast Food Soon.
Hulshizer Brothers' flouring mill on North Front street is easily one of Newark's leading business institutions. The new proprietors are men of good business judgment and are preparing to make the concern one of the best in point of quality and capacity of output in the state.
In September Messrs. J. R. and E. S. Hulshizer purchased the David Thomas mill. In May they purchased the Sites & Kellenberger mill. By the terms of the sale the Thomas mill building went to Mr. Kellenberger, while Hulshizer Brothers retained control of the equipment. Much of this machinery is now being moved to the old Sites & Kellenberger mill, besides a quantity of new machinery which is being added to the plant.
When the improvements are completed the mill will have a capacity of 150 barrels a day. Four carloads of grain can be unloaded per day and a like amount of flour and feed can be loaded each day. The mill has a storage capacity of 25,000 bushels of wheat, six cars of feed and 2,000 barrels of flour.
By the first of July the improvements will have been completed and shortly after this time two new brands of flour will be introduced, one of spring wheat and one of winter wheat, both of the highest grade.
It is the intention of the firm to put out a breakfast food, made entirely of wheat, which will be purer, cleaner and cheaper than other similar articles on the market.

HAPPY RESULTS.

Have Made Many Newark Residents Enthusiastic.

No wonder scores of Newark citizens grow enthusiastic. It is enough to make anyone happy to find relief after years of suffering. Public statements like the following are but truthful representations of the daily work done in Newark by Doan's Kidney Pills.
Policeman Frank Edwards, of 350 North Stanberry street, says: "I had sharp pains across my kidneys and to a man on his feet all the time such an annoyance is very distressing. I tried to check or arrest it but failed until I got Doan's Kidney Pills at Crayton's drugstore. I followed directions closely in using them and by the time they were all taken I had no more pain in my kidneys, nor have I had since."

EAST NEWARK
Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Wendell of Leipsic, Ohio, are making an extended trip in an automobile. Word was received by friends here that they had arrived in Cleveland. After making a short stay there they will visit other points between Cleveland and Newark. They expect to arrive in Newark in a few days and visit Mrs. Wendell's mother and sisters, Mrs. Gillogly, Miss Fannie Gillogly of Fifth street, and Mrs. Jennie Paxton of the East End.
Master Harry Woodward left Friday for Hyserville, where he will spend his vacation with his uncle, Dr. Alfred Fletcher.
Miss Mildred Robe, who has spent several weeks in Canada, visiting at the home of her grandparents, is expected to arrive home Monday.
Mrs. George Gore of Cedar street visited her son at New Lexington, O., Thursday and Friday.
Little Elmore Earler of Oakwood ave. is ill with tonsillitis.
George Gaudner spent Thursday and Friday at New Lexington.
Mrs. Gero of Andover street, who has been seriously ill is reported as somewhat improved.
The members of the Ladies Aid society of the East Main street M. E. church, desire to thank those who so kindly aided them in the musicale given in the church Thursday evening.
Mr. Perry Pratt left Friday for Youngstown on business. He will also visit Pittsburgh before returning.
Mr. H. L. Kirk made a business trip to Columbus Friday.
Mrs. Perry Pratt and daughter, Miss Maud, visited the former's sister, Mrs. Edward Wright of Granville, Friday.
Mr. and Mrs. David Hollister will move into their new home on Oakwood avenue next week.
Mrs. Charles Hazlett who has been ill, is improving.
Taylor Harrington is seriously ill at his home on Wing street.

MRS. PAUL BURNS, Marshallville, Mich., writes: "I want all my friends to know the great good Zoa Phora has done for me. I suffered for months with nervous prostration, sick headache and kidney and bladder trouble. After holding consultation, four doctors said I could not live without an operation, and I was too weak to have one. Bunches formed in my bowels and I became so sore that I lost the use of my limbs. The doctor called the bunches tumors. He said that I also had a floating kidney, and would not be any better until I had it sewed in place. After using one bottle of Zoa Phora, I could stand on my feet, and after taking three bottles I could walk around the room, and after the fourth bottle I was able to walk out of doors."

Write the Zoa Phora Co., Kalamazoo, Mich., for a free trial bottle and copy of their illustrated medical book, "Dr. Pongelly's Advice to Women." The doctor will gladly give free special advice when needed. Zoa Phora is for sale at $1.00 a bottle by all druggists.

WAGNER
ELECTED CAPTAIN OF NEWARK BALL TEAM.
Every Member of Team Voted for Him as Successor to Butch Flick Friday Night.
At a meeting of the Idlewild baseball team the subject of electing a captain to succeed "Butch" Flick permanently was taken up and every member of the team voted for Ivor Wagner, the popular second baseman, who will accept the honor. Since last Saturday Lefty Snyder has been very acceptably acting as captain but feels greatly relieved at having the responsibility on other shoulders.
Ivor Wagner is fitted by personality and experience for the position of captain, and an improvement in the team's play along vital lines will unquestionably be noticed. Especially will this be true in batting and base-running. Wagner has been in fast company under some of the most capable playing managers in the business and knows the methods to adopt to bring results in the shape of victories. No man on the team is more popular than "Wag," as he is called, and the team under him will not do their best because they have to, but because they want to.
Wagner is now a resident of Newark, having moved his wife to this city, which he calls home.

COSHOCKTON

SHUT OUT BY IDLEWILDE ON FRIDAY AFTERNOON

The Same Teams Play in Newark at Idlewild Today and Sunday Afternoon.

Coshockton, June 25.—Nel Mason, the speedy twirler of the Idlewild team, shut out the strong Coshockton aggregation Friday, and incidentally put an end to the winning streak of the locals, who had chalked up nine successive victories. Wesp, the crack south paw was touched up pretty lively in the first inning, but the visitors could do very little with him after that Newark's hits were made as follows: Wagner 2, Justice 2, Purtell, Farrell, Taylor and Snyder. The first three made two-baggers. The score.

Idlewild.....3 0 0 0 0 1 0 0 6—4

Hits Coshockton 5, Newark 8. Errors: Wesp and Matteson; Mason and Snodgrass; umpire, Prince.

COSHOCKTON TEAM HERE.

The Coshockton team will play in Newark today and Sunday, and both should be very interesting and exciting games. Both teams are strong in the pitchers box, and are fast in fielding and other departments of the game. Good crowds should attend and no doubt will.

DOCTORS

Victors in Friday Afternoon's Game With the Merchants, the Score Being Six to Five.

The doctors, after having the game practically cinched Friday afternoon against the merchants, were nearly defeated by a last inning rally by Captain Johnson's players.

The score finally stood 6 to 5 in favor of the doctors, although three runs were made by the merchants in the last inning. Until that time Dr. Emery's pitching was unhitatable, while the team behind him played a steady fielding game. The batteries were: Evans and Emery for the doctors; Jones and Hoyt for the merchants.

Startling Evidence.

Fresh testimony in great quantity is constantly coming in, declaring Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds to be unequalled. A recent expression from T. J. McFarland, Rentonville, Va., serves as example. He writes: "I had bronchitis for three years and doctored all the time without being benefited. Then I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery and a few bottles wholly cured me." Equally effective in curing all lung and throat troubles, consumption, pneumonia and grip. Guaranteed by Hall's drug store. Trial bottles free, regular sizes 50c and $1.00.

AUTO CARS IN WAR.
Their Value in Rescuing the Wounded to Be Tested.
The very latest thing in warfare is the Ival bullet proof motor for the use of army medical officers and stretcher bearers. Generals have not yet taken to using automobiles with bullet proof hoods instead of horses in riding about a battlefield to direct the movements of the troops in their command, but the employment of the motor car for surgeons and for rescuing the wounded on the firing line and carrying them to the rear is receiving favorable consideration. The British recently tested such a motor at Bisley, in England. It is three wheeled, and the mechanism is said to be simple. The motor is provided with bullet proof shields, which may be extended in wing fashion so as to protect two sets of stretcher bearers on the firing line.

BRAVE JAPANESE SPIES.

They Show No Fear of Death When Executed by Russians.

The bravery shown by the Japanese spies who have been captured by the Russians and executed has even excited the admiration of their foes. The heroism they display when taken forth for execution was well illustrated when the two Japanese officers, Colonel Ukoko and Captain Otti, met death recently at Harbin. These two officers were captured while attempting to blow up a railway bridge in Manchuria. Being taken before a court martial they were sentenced to be hanged as spies, but General Kuro-patkin ordered that they be shot. When placed in front of a file of soldiers to meet death, both officers asked that their arms should not be tied to the boards behind them, and Captain Otti requested that no bandage be placed over his eyes. Colonel Ukoko was a Christian, and before his execution he received the sacrament from a Russian priest.

TIGER HUNT IN INDIA.

How the Viceroy, Lord Curzon, Goes on Such an Expedition.

Tiger hunting in India, with the unusual excitement which it affords, gives Viceroy Curzon welcome relief from the strain of his official responsibilities. Tigers are hunted in India in two ways — by lying in wait for the animal at night on an elevated platform and by shooting him from the back of a trained elephant. The latter method is employed where the hunting party is made up from officialdom and royalty, and the preparations for such a hunt are often upon a magnificent scale. On such occasions the game is surrounded and watched for days previous to the hunt by an army of natives. At the proper time drums which make a great noise are beaten, and the beast is driven toward the spot where the sportsmen are waiting it on the backs of the elephants, these great beasts being provided with open, boxlike howdahs. The possibility that the tiger may spring upon the back of the elephant is supposed to add to the zest of the sport.

THE STORY OF A WONDERFUL CURE:
DR. J. M. KERR:—I had been suffering for over six years with Contagious Blood Poisoning, and had become thoroughly discouraged, having received no relief from a number of other physicians who had treated me. Seeing your advertisement I at once decided to try you. At that time my body was a mass of ulcers, my limbs swollen to twice their normal size, and I was unable to walk without assistance. That was the 8th of April, 1903, and now on the 27th of June, less than three months, my ulcers have all disappeared, the swelling is gone, and I am on the road to a permanent cure. Words cannot express my thanks to you, and I would earnestly advise any one who is suffering from a like disease to avail himself of your services. Yours very gratefully, E. W. WILL HOLD AN OUTING AT BUCKEYE LAKE

On Wednesday, June 29—A Fine Musical Program Will Be Followed By Dancing.

The annual outing given by Newark Lodge, No. 291, B. P. O. E., for the members and ladies of the lodge, will be held on Wednesday evening, June 29. The outing will be held at Buckeye Lake and the Elks and their ladies will meet at the lodge room and leave the interurban station on the 4 o'clock car for Buckeye Lake. Boating and fishing, and the usual amusements of the lake will be enjoyed until 6 o'clock, when a dainty supper will be served at the Elks and their ladies in the Buckeye Lake Park Hotel. During the evening the following choice program of music will be rendered:

Other choice selections will be rendered by the Imperial Orchestra, during the evening, and a general good time is promised to all who attend.

Your attention is called to the fact that our meetings are now held in the Ankele block, instead of in the Red Men's hall.

Masons.

It is quite probable that a joint Masonic picnic of all the Masonic bodies of Licking county will be held at Buckeye Lake in the near future. It is planned to have the picnic under the auspices of the two Newark lodges, and the matter will be taken up at the regular meetings of the two lodges and pushed to completion. The date of the picnic will be duly announced in the columns of The Advocate.

On next Monday evening there will be a meeting of Warren Chapter, No. 6 R. A. M., on which occasion there will be work in the Royal Arch degree.

At the meeting of St. Luke's Commandery, Knights Templar, to be held on next Tuesday evening, the annual election of officers for the commandery will be held.

The regular meeting of Newark Lodge, F. & A. M., will be held on Friday night.

Eagles.

Gail Hamilton spread a banquet for 200 Eagles and they spread themselves last night. A team of twelve came from Uhrichsville and Newark to put on the work, Uhrichsville and Newark sending respectively twenty six and twenty representatives.

The meeting was held in Forbush hall, and eighty-three were initiated into Eagledom. Three were put through the first degree. The charters will still be open for a few days, so that any one desiring to join can do so.

This particular kind of Eagles is species of night hawk, since the night hours grew small and increased again before the festivities came to an end. Those participating report a good time last evening, and say the series is certain to be popular.—Coshocton Democrat and Standard.

Modern Woodmen of America.

Cedar Camp held a very enthusiastic meeting Wednesday evening with 185 members present, and several applications were balloted on and five candidates initiated.

Big preparations are being made for the picnic to be held July 21, at Buckeye Lake, and every Woodman with their families and friends are expected to be there as several of the head of flocks will be there. The price will be 25 cents round trip, which includes everything. Your baskets will be checked free of charge, and you can procure ice for lemonade free.

It is expected that there will be five thousand people attend and rates have been secured from Columbus and Zanesville.

The committee on this picnic will report at the next meeting on next Wednesday evening, and a full attendance is desired.

Royal Neighbors.

The Royal Neighbors held their regular meeting on Thursday evening with a large attendance of the members. Three applications for membership were balloted on and accepted. Neighbor Mrs. Fox, who underwent

The New Way to Health

With the discovery of VITON, the "New Way to Health," there is really no longer any excuse for remaining sick. This remedy acts upon the internal organs directly through the blood, which is the only scientific way to prevent and cure disease. If your blood is impure, your organs are diseased, and your health is impossible. The Liver, Kidneys and Stomach are highly sensitive, and very disease to which we are subject is the result of some derangement of one of these organs, and if a cure is not made of it, it will lead to a fatal result. Nature has her own way of warning us of the approach of disease. Here is a free trial of the change.

Headache, Dizziness, Nervousness, Indigestion, Constipation, Poor Appetite, Rheumatism, Biliousness, Constipation, and all the signs of bad blood. (ONE of these symptoms. An occasional headache may seem a trifling ailment, but it is really a warning of a serious condition, which if not checked in time may lead to serious—perhaps fatal—results. It was decided that as many of the members as could possibly do so would go to Columbus next Tuesday to visit Mrs. Fox and visit the Royal Neighbors lodge in the evening. It is requested that all those who decide to go meet at the interurban station on Tuesday morning to take the 9 o'clock car.

Last Sunday about seventeen families of Royal Neighbors drove to the home of Neighbor Batch at Mount Hermon church, taking with them well filled baskets, and spent the day in a most enjoyable manner, in spite of the rain. Sixty-three persons sat down to a sumptuous dinner that had been prepared for the occasion.

Knights of Pythias.

Henry Pfeffer of Roland Lodge, 503, Knights of Pythias, has been appointed county deputy by the grand chancellor.

Knights of St. John.

At a meeting of St. Frances Commandery, Knights of St. John, it was decided to attend the field exercises at Marion on field day, Friday, July 1. All the members of the order, uniformed and ununiformed, have made final arrangements to go in a body to attend the State Encampment. All the visiting Knights in Ohio will attend high mass in the morning. The various commanderies will participate in the drill exercises in the afternoon for the competitive prizes. A grand banquet will be given in the evening to the visiting delegations, and the occasion will be enlivened with music and responses will be made to a number of toasts. The Knights will celebrate Independence Day in a worthy manner equal to anything observed in Ohio. It will be the first time that the convention will be held in Marion, and because of its central location, the crowd is expected to exceed that of any of the gatherings in recent years. All the members of Newark will turn out and take part in the exercises of the day.

Odd Fellows.

Licking Lodge, Daughters of Rebekah, held its regular meeting on Thursday night and initiated three candidates.

On next Wednesday the Odd Fellows of Newark will run an excursion to Springfield, O., for the purpose of visiting the Odd Fellows' Home. It is expected that at least two cars will be necessary to accommodate the crowd that will go. The cars will leave the interurban station at 6 o'clock in the morning, and returning, will leave Springfield between 6 and 7 o'clock in the evening, arriving home between 9 and 10 o'clock.

At the meeting of Newark Lodge, held on Monday evening, the first and third degrees were conferred and at the meeting of Olive Branch on Tuesday evening there was work in the third degree.

The trustees of the Odd Fellows lodge have purchased of Royal Kaslon the bowling alley lot opposite the independent office for 500 and we understand will build a business block, basing the second story of the room adjoining to the north of T. P. Hoover and thus have a double hall.

Billions of Fares.

The city of New York in the 12 months ending with February, for the first time in its history, passed the billion mark in the number of five-cent fares paid to local transit companies.

Birth Rate of Italy.

The latest census of the population of Italy shows that the birth rate, which was 37 per 1,000 in 1889, had sunk to 32.47 per 1,000 in 1901.

Low Rate Excursion to Atlantic City, N. J., and Other Seaside Resorts.—In order to give its patrons an opportunity to visit the seashore at a nominal cost, the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Company will sell low-rate excursion tickets to Atlantic City, Ocean City, Cape May and Sea Isle City, N. J., and Ocean City, Md., on Thursday, August 18, 1904.

Atlantic City, N. J., the most popular of the hundred or more resorts along the Atlantic Coast, is pronounced the finest watering place in the world. This great American Seashore Resort has kept pace with the times and prospered. The hotels have grown in number and size. Prosperity and popularity are with it.

The surf bathing which has made Atlantic City famous is one of the wonders of the world. The sight during bathing hours defies description; men, women and children in bathing costumes of varied hues form a picture to be seen only at Atlantic City.

Aside from the seaside features, Atlantic City has amusements of every kind. Great iron piers extend hundreds of feet into the ocean. Each pier has its summer theater and band stands, and for a nominal price one can enjoy the comfortable chairs of the pier and listen to the music of the bands throughout the entire day, if he so wills it.

The proximity of Atlantic City to all the big central and western cities, by reason of the excellent through train service of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, makes it the resort of the masses. Tickets will be available on all regular trains, and will be good for return twelve days, including date of sale, thus giving ample time for an enjoyable outing. Stop-over within limit of ticket will be allowed at Philadelphia, Pa., and Washington, D. C., on return trip.

SUMMER TOURIST RATES TO Pueblo, Colorado Springs, Denver, Salt Lake City and Ogden, via the Missouri Pacific Railway, (the Colorado Short Line) Tickets on sale June 1st to September 30th. Final return limit October 31st. Liberal stop-overs allowed. Double Daily Service from St. Louis to Colorado and Utah. Pullman Drawing-Room Sleepers, Dining Cars, and Free Reclining Chair Cars. Unexcelled service and quick time. For further information, address A. A. Gallagher, D. P. A., No. 419 Walnut street Cincinnati, Ohio.

pupils turned in words which ran from fourteen to twenty-one letters in length. Fifteen submitted the word disproportionableness, containing twenty-one letters.
Some gave in the names of Russian officers. After the teacher had congratulated the fifteen who gave in the word disproportionableness, she told them that there was still a longer one,
which was supposed to have been coined by William Gladstone and contained twenty-four letters; it was disestablishmentarianism.

ANNUAL

COMMENCEMENT OF ST. FRANCIS DE SALES SCHOOL.

The Splendid Program Included a Well Presented Drama—The Valedictory by Miss Shaughnessy.

The annual commencement exercises of St. Francis de Sales parochial schools were held Thursday evening in the school hall.

As on former occasions, the Sisters have taken a lively interest in training their pupils in various interesting numbers, musical and declamatory, but may be said that the writer never had the pleasure of being so nicely entertained and never witnessed the rendition of a similar program with any more delight than he did that of Thursday evening.

While St. Francis' can boast of but one graduate this year, it may well be proud of this one, for seldom do we find in a person of this age intelligence and learning so mature.

With due respect to all, special mention may be made of the two numbers of the string band, "Gypsy Serenade" and "Golden Rod," and the vocal solo of Miss Blanche Trost. Those who participated in the play did so in a manner that would have done credit to professional actors.

Great credit is due to the Sisters for their successful efforts.

Following is the valedictory, "Thus Ends Our First Lesson," by Miss Catherine Shaughnessy.

Thus Ends Our First Lesson.

While sitting alone in the twilight and recalling to memory incidents of my school life, the thought came to me that our whole time during those happy days was spent on one long lesson.

Perhaps you would like to know that that long lesson could have been our first training us morally or pointing out to us the difference between good and evil. On the following page of that lesson book would be found the high aims to which we could aspire and the noble principles which should be the foundation of our lives. Then again another page would be turned and lo! before our eyes appears the different material of which our foundation is laid. The finest of these was to act always in all places and at all times on principle. That is the possess enough character to enable us to perform that which is right, not through the fear of punishment, which would be the consequence of the contrary, but because our conscience tells us it is the correct path to follow. We know our natural inclinations tend toward evil rather than the good and so difficult it is for us to act in a manner contrary to our wishes is known only too well by all. But our duties are mere stepping stones to success. So we have continued page after page and now we have finished our first lesson on the highway of completion.

This is the principal object of a Catholic school education, and because of this is the assertion that the lessons taught in our schools are not at all difficult has often been heard. The only answer we can give to such a statement is, that the person by whom it was made was never a pupil of our school. In looking over our text books, we are frequently confronted by a page that brings back to our minds a picture of the difficulty we experienced in trying to understand it. How we studied, seemed to study in vain and were bound to give up in despair when we recalled our motto, "I can and I will." We would then take fresh courage, and in the end master that difficulty. Thus one page, then another, was conquered until our last one was conquered.

Now we see that our school life has been one long lesson, divided into two parts—training our morals and training our intellects.

Our school days have gone, their story lies buried—the effects alone remaining as records on the pages of time. To us they have passed rapidly—the pursuit of knowledge and the attainment of virtue, gathering from the lessons of the past knowledge for the future, and laying up a store of experience learned from vicissitudes of the wise guidance of those placed before us, who devote themselves to the noblest work on earth—the training of youth to virtue and knowledge. To those of us who were instructed us we wish to express our thanks, thanks which have been uttered by the lips of many, but, like us, remember them only for a moment.

We must say adieu to our kind and loving pastor, to whose zealous instruction

we owe much. Likewise to our companions with whom we have spent so many happy hours, but with the hope that should unforeseen circumstances prevent our meeting here again, we shall meet where partings are no more.

The drama, "Striking Oil," was given in two parts very admirably by the following: Anthony Stare, F. Mueller, Alma Mueller, Anna Riegger, Katherine Shaughnessy, H. Kirk, John Garretty, John Winters. The duet by I. Ossogrove and B. Williams was admirably rendered as was Miss Devlin's solo and the quartet's "Holy Peace."

WOMEN AS JURORS.

Mean Man Tells What May Happen Should They Be Chosen.

Defendant's Lawyer — Your name, madam?

First Juror—I don't see why you need my name.

D. L.—It is necessary. Your name, please?

F. J.—Mary Louise Irma Ethelwyne Smythe—not Smith, remember. I am a Fincklerhoff-Van Rensselaer. Our family was very much opposed to my marrying a Smythe, for, you see—

D. L.—That is sufficient, madam. Your age?

F. J.—Sir-r-r?

D. L.—I said your age.

F. J. (blushing)—Twenty-three.

D. L.—Have you read anything about the case in the papers?

F. J.—No. I haven't had time yet. You see, I belong to a club, and we are getting up an entertainment, and I haven't been able to touch a paper for an age.

D. L. (smiling)—Very well. Are you prepared, then, to give an unbiased opinion on the case?

F. J.—Oh, of course. My husband says I am one of the fairest women he ever met. I am never prejudiced, even if I don't like the looks of a person.

D. L. (to clerk)—Call the next taleswoman.

Clerk calls Mrs. Brown.

Mrs. B. (to lawyer, indignantly)—I am not a saleswoman, sir! No member of my family is in trade, sir!

D. L.—You misunderstood me, madam. I merely applied to you the technical term—saleswoman. That is what every woman becomes when she enters the jury box to be examined.

Mrs. B.—Well, I don't want to waste my time in this horrid court. I'm going to tea this afternoon.

Judge—Mrs. Brown is excused.

Clerk calls Mrs. Jones.

Mrs. J.—I beg to be excused. I am waiting in the midst of dressmaking, preparing for the summer, and the modiste is waiting now to fit me.

Judge—A trivial excuse. You must serve.

Clerk calls Mrs. Doe.

Mrs. D.—My baby swallowed a pin this morning, and I must go right home and attend to the child.

Judge—Mrs. Doe is excused.

After 789 ladies are examined a jury secured.—San Francisco Town Talk.

Wrong Diagnosis.

Not long ago an old colored woman Virginia visited a doctor and informed him that her husband was seriously ill.

The doctor hastened home with her and upon making a diagnosis of a man's case informed the wife that he had a hopeless case of gastritis.

"Gastritis!" ejaculated the old woman. "De Lawd knows I don't know w-h-e-v-e-r got gastritis, 'cause I can't burn a thing but coal fire in dis 'nigger an' but powerful little of that."—Philadelphia Ledger.

A Commercial Ruse.

"Do you mean to tell me that you expect to sell that yellow dog for $5?"

"You ought to be glad to give him away."

"Well," answered Mr. Erastus Pinkney, "I'd be glad to give 'im away, but he ain't no use o' tryin' him. But if I sell 'n $5 foh him maybe I kin keep drapin' de price until somebody thinks he's worth a bargain foh two bits."—Washington Star.

Almost Ready for the Plunge.

"Now," said the best man after they had rehearsed the wedding for the fourth time, "there's only one more thing to do."

"What's that?" asked the maid of honor.

"Send for the lawyers and go through the motions of the divorce trial."—Chicago Record-Herald.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together.

Until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and recommended local remedies, and by constantly endeavoring to cure with local treatment, produced it to be a constitutional disease, and, therefore, required constitutional treatment. They Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a tea-spoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer One Hundred Dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

Dr. Shepherdson Will Conduct Vesper Service Sunday Afternoon—Good Musical Program Also.

Tomorrow afternoon at the four o'clock "Vesper service" Dr. Shepherdson will give the last of the series of studies from the letters of Paul, which he has been conducting in Taylor Hall. The subject of tomorrow's study will be "Paul's Picture of a Christian."

A twenty minute musical program will open the meeting, conducted by the quartette and by Misses Phillips and Hirschberg.

The attendance on the past two Sundays has been very large and doubtless the capacity of the hall will be taxed to accommodate those who shall come to hear this last of the studies. The hall will be opened at 3 o'clock. Both ladies and gentlemen are invited to come.

AN ORDINANCE

Determining to proceed with the improvement of Oakwood avenue, from East Main street to the north line of Maiden street by constructing therein a sanitary 24-inch tile sewer.

Be it Ordained by the Council of the City of Newark, State of Ohio, three fourths of all members elected thereto concurring:

Sec. 1. That it is hereby determined to proceed with the improvement of Oakwood avenue, from East Main street to the north line of Maiden street, by constructing therein a sanitary 24-inch tile sewer, in accordance with ordinance No. —, entitled: "An ordinance to improve Oakwood avenue, from East Main street, to the north line of Maiden street, by constructing therein a sanitary 24-inch tile sewer." Passed on the 2d day of May, 1904, and in accordance with the plans, specifications, estimates and profiles heretofore approved and now on file in the office of the Department of Public Service.

Sec. 2. That all claims for damages resulting from said improvement shall be judicially inquired into before commencing said proposed improvement, and the solicitor is hereby authorized and directed to institute proceedings in a court of competent jurisdiction to inquire into such claims.

Sec. 3. That the whole cost of said improvement, less one-fifth thereof, and the cost of interest thereon shall be assessed in proportion to the benefit derived, and the several lots and lands, to-wit: All lots and lands abutting and adjoining upon the proposed improvement, which lots and lands are benefited thereby, shall be specially benefited by said improvement; and the cost of said improvement shall include the expense of printing and publishing the notices, resolutions and orders required, and the service of said notices, the cost of construction together with the interest on bonds issued in anticipation of the collection of the deferred assessments, and all other necessary expenditures.

Sec. 4. That the assessments so to be levied shall be paid in ten semi-annual installments, with interest on deferred payments of one per cent per annum, provided that the owner of any property assessed may, at his option, pay such assessment in cash within fifteen days from and after the passage of the assessing ordinance, in which case said cash assessment shall, of course, be paid in full upon bonds to be issued in anticipation of the collection of deferred installments assessments.

Sec. 5. That the bonds on the City of Newark, State of Ohio, shall be issued in anticipation of the collection of assessments by installments and in an amount equal thereto; and the remainder of the entire cost of said improvement and the cost of interest thereon, and the cost of interest thereon, together with the cost of any real estate or interest therein, wharfed or appropriated, and the cost and expense of any appropriation, providing for the payment of the bonds awarded any owner of adjoining lands and interest therein, and the cost and expenses of any such award, shall be paid by the issuance of bonds in the manner provided by law.

A DISTRESSING ACCIDENT

Results in the Fatal injury of Mrs. Augusta Thurston
--While Picking Cherries Mrs. Thurston Fell
Ten Feet Breaking Back and Arms.

An accident which resulted in the frightful and fatal injury of Mrs. Augusta Thurston one of Newark's most highly esteemed women, occurred at the home of Eli Hull on West Main street at 1.30 o'clock Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Thurston was engaged in picking cherries at Mr. Hull's home, where there is an abundance of the fruit which Mr. Hull has given to a number of friends who have gone there to pick them.

Mrs. Thurston was on a step-ladder and seeing a particularly luscious cluster of fruit, stepped from the ladder to a limb of the tree in order to reach it. As her weight was thrown on the limb it broke, precipitating the unfortunate woman to the ground, a distance of ten feet. She struck on her back and shoulders and when assistance got there it was discovered that she was seriously hurt.

Dr. W. C. Rank and Dr. W. E. Wiyarch were called and they found that Mrs. Thurston had broken her back, both arms, right shoulder and had also sustained internal injuries the total effect of which renders her recovery impossible. The injured woman was taken to her home, 71 High street, where everything possible was done to alleviate her sufferings. The entire lower portion of the body is paralyzed, although not for a moment has she been unconscious.

Mrs. Augusta Thurston is the widow of the late William Thurston and is 52 years of age.

She has been prominently identified with the work of the Plymouth Congregational church and is known and beloved by a large circle of friends for her many noble qualities.

At 3 o'clock Saturday there was no change in the condition of Mrs. Augusta Thurston, who was injured Friday evening. Mrs. Thurston, the doctors say, can not live.

"Not going to the Springs this summer, John. I find I can get the same results at The Newark Sanitarium much cheaper, and be at home, too. If you don't believe me ask the Doctor."

6-14 eod MR. TRUEMANN.

BANK CREDITORS MEET

Cashier Lingafelter Repeats Statement That Bank is Solvent and Asks That Judgment be Suspended--Several Speeches Made and Resolution Adopted.

The meeting of the creditors of the Newark Savings Bank company as represented by the depositors was held Friday night in Brennan's hall, over a hundred being present, including several women.

Mr. James F. Lingafelter, the former cashier of the bank, was present with his son, Robert, their attorney, B. G. Smythe, being with them.

The meeting was representative.

The meeting was representative in sented every walk in life. The capitalist with thousands touched elbow with the mechanic and laborer. Men who have hundreds and even thousands on deposit in the defunct bank, sat in earnest conversation with men who by their frugality had saved a few dollars from their daily stipend, and women who had wrung from the wash tub their paltry savings, now seemingly hopelessly tied up in the bank. From the moment they entered the hall there developed a unanimity of sentiment that all the depositors should stand together in whatever action was taken.

Gil C. Daugherty called the meeting to order at 8 o'clock and stated that it was called at the instance of some of his clients, who felt that some concerted action should be taken by the depositors for the protection of their interests as far as the receivership of the Newark Savings Bank Company was concerned. They were not satisfied with the situation as it existed, and the object of the meeting was to bring about a condition satisfactory to the creditors of the bank as represented by the depositors.

Mr. Thomas W. Tabler was unanimously chosen chairman of the meeting and Mr. Henry Pfeiffer was likewise chosen secretary.

Mr. Lingafelter was present and John Prior suggested that Mr. Lingafelter might be able to throw some light on the condition of the bank.

Before Mr. Lingafelter could take the floor Attorney J. A. Flory arose and said he represented some of the depositors, that he understood the receiver who had been appointed was a stock holder, director and debtor of the bank, that the stockholders should be made to pay up the difference that would exist should it not pay out that Mr. Lingafelter had said the bank was not insolvent; that the receiver should at once take steps to collect what is due the bank, and take action against the stockholders to compel them to stand by their liability; that there should be a cessation of the dilatory dallying methods that had prevailed there; that the creditors should take concerted action to find out what the probability of the bank paying out was; that if those who had had charge of the bank had properly conducted the business of the bank it would be in such shape at present that a statement could be made of the bank's condition at the present time.

Mr. Rees R. Jones said that every one present, he felt sure, would like to hear from Mr. Lingafelter who arose and said that he repeated what he had said before.

Mr. Lingafelter stated that the bank was solvent, and he believed that when a report was made this fact would be shown; he thought the receiver should be a disinterested party, who would take the proper methods to marshal the assets of the bank, and when this was done he felt confident that his connection with the bank would be proven to have been honest and straight. Mr. Lingafelter made a pathetic appeal to those present to suspend judgment of him and his actions, and he was sure his honor and integrity would be vindicated. If there proved to be any shortage he would give all his property to cover it, and now stood willing to give any aid in his power to get a thorough investigation, with a view of ascertaining the exact status of the bank's affairs.

Mr. Bauer said that sympathy was all right in its place, but it did not buy bread. The question all wished answered was "where is the money that depositors took to the bank and left there?"

Mr. I. N. Wilson suggested that the depositors should be represented by an expert in the investigation now being conducted, and named Samuel Ewing as a man fitted for the place.

The suggestion went over without any action being taken.

T. O. Donovan said that he knew of one woman who had gone to Receiver Taafel, and asked him when she could know what shape the bank and her deposit was in. Mr. Taafel is said to have replied: "We may be able to give you that information in about six years."

Mr. Donovan said that the effort of those now in charge of the bank's affairs appeared to be delay with the object in view of letting the statute of limitations run against the liabilities of the stockholders.

Mr. Daugherty said that the interest of the stockholders was diametrically opposed to that of the depositors, and that Receiver Taafel was a stockholder, whose appointment was secured by stockholders to protect their interests, and that as such he must of necessity be inimical to the interest of depositors. He said "Even honest men act along the line of their own interest." It was finally the sense of the meeting, crystallized into a motion which unanimously carried that Attorneys J. A. Flory and Gil C. Daugherty be chosen to represent the depositors as a whole, their compensation not to exceed three per cent of the amount actually recovered by them.

By this means it is intended that these two attorneys will represent the great majority of the amount owed to depositors by the bank, and a motion to remove the receiver coming from them as representing these depositors would undoubtedly result in the court removing him, should such an action be necessary.

Each depositor was requested to call at once on one or the other of these attorneys and leave his name and the amount he had on deposit.

MR. TAAFEL

Says Report Will Be Ready by July 15
—All Will Be Treated Fairly.

Receiver W. G. Taafel said Saturday afternoon that he represented as such receiver both stockholders and depositors and that he hoped and expected to be ready to make his report to the court by July 15, by which time Mr. J. Hope Suter, the expert, who is examining the books, would finish his work. Mr. Taafel said that no one would lose by his action as receiver, but farther he did not wish to discuss the meeting of Friday night.

OBITUARY.

MRS. CATHERINE LYNCH.

The remains of Mrs. Catherine Lynch, nee Griffin, who died in Columbus Friday, were brought to Newark Saturday and taken to the home of Mrs. Clyde Richards on Valandigham street. The funeral will take place from the St. Francis de Sales church Sunday afternoon at one o'clock and the interment will be made in Mt. Calvary. The deceased was an elderly lady. She had lived in Newark for many years, but recently resided in Columbus. She was a consistent Christian and is survived by one brother.

WILLIS H. MILLER.

Willis H. Miller, aged 45 years, died at his home, four miles north of Hanover, Friday night at 12 o'clock, after an illness of some time. The deceased is survived by his widow and six children. ## PROF. ATWELL

Well-Known Johnstown Public School Superintendent Receives a Life High School Certificate.

In the list of applicants who were successful in obtaining life High school certificates at the examination held by the State Board of Examiners at Columbus last week it was the great pleasure of his many friends in Johnstown and throughout the county to note the name of our own school superintendent, W. L. Atwell. For several years Prof. Atwell has been the holder of a common school life certificate and this new honor comes to him after successfully passing an examination in all the branches prescribed in regular High school courses. The honor comes to but comparatively few and to only those who are recognized as being among the most scholarly and have attained eminent success as teachers. Prof. Atwell has been with us as superintendent only one year, but during that time he raised the grading of the school from second to first grade and has placed the work on a firmer and more satisfactory basis than ever before.

Two other Licking county superintendents were also successful before the examiners at Columbus, Prof. L. C. Brown, of Jersey, and Prof. F. P. Householder, of Utica, each obtaining common school life certificates.—Johnstown Independent.

BABY BOY

Son of Nicholas Criticos Fell From a Porch and Broke His Right Arm.

Paul Criticos, the little fourteen months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Criticos of 256 West Main street, met with a painful and serious accident. While playing at his home he fell off the porch breaking his right arm and bruising the right side of his face. A physician was called who attended to his injuries.
